This diagram illustrates the assembly of the dollhouse's base. It shows a central white frame with a pink floor and a pink balcony railing. To the left is a white wall section with a pink door and a pink curtain. To the right is another white wall section with a pink door and a pink curtain. A large pink base plate is shown at the bottom, with arrows indicating it should be placed under the central frame and the side wall sections. The background is a light blue sky with white clouds.
